Integrated Development Services (IDS)

IDS has a great book for families and continues to offer free parent workshops!

Play to Talk: A Practical Guide to Help Your Late-Talking Child Join the Conversation is based on 30 years of clinical research, and is designed to empower parents and professionals with proven strategies and step-by-step instructions to help children of any age develop essential skills for social interactions and conversational relationships. The approach has been successful with hundreds of families, including families affected by autism spectrum disorders. Play to Talk is now available at www.playtotalk.com for $16.95 plus shipping.

Play to Talk introductory workshops are offered monthly, to provide parents and others with an overview of the approach discussed in the book.

Contact Sam Garlock at 1-800-218-3781 x111 to register.

Workshops are free. Please visit us at www.ids-wi.com or call us @ 1-800-218-3781 to learn more about all of our services.

The Friendship Project was created for the interesting, intelligent kids in our lives who march to the beat of their own drum, and struggle to connect with peers.

Our goal is to help them discover that peer play is possible and that friends can be fun!

In a playful, accepting environment, our experienced play facilitators use movement, art, and teamwork activities to engage participants and teach them skills they'll need to make a friend and be a friend. Integrated Development Services has regional clinical teams based in Madison, Milwaukee, Fond du Lac, La Crosse, and Eau Claire

Imagine a Child's Capacity In Madison

ICC is providing Summer Groups, beginning June 21, including "Making and Being a Friend - Friendship Basics", "Making and Being a Friend, Fun with Feelings", "Move and Relax Yoga", and "Play Partners". For more information, visit www.icc-wi.org or for more details call Karl at 608-204-6247.
